Tax Support for FAMU's Dental School

- Only 1 in 3 taxpayers in Leon County support giving local tax dollars to FAMU's efforts to build a dental school.

This week, Leon County Commissioners approved a resolution supporting a new FAMU dental school, yet commissioners did not formally commit to providing $5 million that FAMU President Ammons requested. Each County Commissioner expressed support for working with FAMU on its $82 million proposal to build a dental school.

Do you support or oppose Leon County Commission using your tax dollars to help fund a FAMU dental school?
